Training Looks Different!

This past year has really challenged us and, yet, has given us all new opportunities. Training has really been transformed as our training staff quickly adapted to a new way of presenting workshops and learned the Zoom platform. Child care providers also met the challenge and learned how to use technology to meet their training needs.

As we move into the second year of our new reality are looking to expand those opportunities. As you may have noticed, we have been offering limited in person classes such as Medication Administration Training, Basic First Aid and Infant/Child/Adult CPR since last summer with great success. We have a health check prior to each class, seats are socially distanced, everyone wears a mask and participants have been very conscientious about canceling if there is any chance that they are ill. While we still need to adhere to social distancing guidelines and masking, we are slowly moving towards offering some additional in-person opportunities while recognizing that not everyone is ready for that.

The hybrid teaching model—a compromise that attempts to find middle ground among groups who want in-person instruction and those who want remote instruction—is a popular strategy that Child Care Choices (CCC) will implement on a limited basis beginning in June. In many ways, hybrid courses are a great opportunity for instructors and participants to have the opportunity to connect in multiple ways that will ease the strains of the social distancing required by the pandemic, while also meeting the needs of those who prefer to attend training in person.

CCC will offer three workshops in the hybrid format, with the in-person portion taking place in our training rooms—two in Frederick and one in Westminster. The hybrid workshops are designated in our training calendar as either Hybrid-Frederick or Hybrid-Westminster. While we get used to the new format, we ask that you give us a call at 301-662-4549 if you are interested in attending the in person format. Staff will also verify this with you with a phone call prior to the workshop.

The next few months will be a learning experience for everyone and we are looking forward to exploring new avenues with you.

Three hybrid classes are offered in this training calendar!

These classes may be attended in person or by Zoom. Give us a call if you would like to socially distance and attend class in person.
